Friend Knapp

I went to Medham yesterday, & if my these lectures, ^{the people there} did ~~no good there~~, the opportunity furnished ~~me~~, in going & coming, for reflection, ^{did me some,} has brought me to a result which I ~~trust~~ ^{doubt not} will ^{be} gratifying to you & all con-cerned. I have concluded then to withdraw the "State -ment" & to allow the Report to go out ^{as it is.} ~~without any~~ ~~appendix of the kind~~ My reasons are ~~two~~, 1st that I have no ~~desire~~ ^{for} controversy on the subject, though I should not shrink from it were I ~~still~~ of opinion that the interests of the cause required it; & 2^d, & mainly, that I find myself in this case guilty of the very thing for which I blame Garrison. I have thought & do still that the passage in the Report does injustice to the parties implicated, but "waiving" this I go on to blame Garrison for the want of a generous & forgiving spirit in the case. The want of such a spirit I think he has manifested, & for this I think he is to blame. ~~Admitting~~ as he does that such a censure, even if just, was not absolutely demanded by the integrity of the cause, a gen-erous & magnanimous, & forgiving spirit, it seems to me, must have waived it. Be this however as it may, this is that for which I chiefly blame him, & yet, strange inconsistency, I at the same moment fall into the selfsame fault. I thought before & think now, that the complaint I prefer is just, but being so, a generous & magnanimous spirit in the case, I am now satisfied, should have kept me from preferring it in the form of the "Statement" to go into the report.

For however just I may regard it, I cannot say that I think it ~~absolutely~~ required by the stern necessity of fidelity to the integrity of our cause.
Having opposed the adoption of the passage in question then in the Society & in the Report, I ^{on that point,} ought to have been content with that; & so far as informality in bringing forward the Report was concerned ^{I should} ~~to~~ have sought redress, as I now pro-pose to do, in seeing to it, that no other report comes forward in the same way, ^{the character of the Report &} let the cir-cumstances of the case, be what they may. That I have not been content with this, ~~I am aware~~

I have thus fallen into the very fault ^{of which I complain,} ~~I charge on~~ ~~Frederick~~, I can account for only by the ad-mission, that personal feeling ^{had} more to do in the case than I was at the time aware. So far then, I frankly confess myself in the wrong, & accordingly ^{as the proper reparation,} take back the statement. ~~You will of course not~~ ~~publish it, & will of course not~~.

I have not yet seen the other members of the Board whose names were appended, but will do so in the course of the day. I doubt not however they will concur with me in ~~the views~~ here expressed.
You will then of course hand this to Mr. E. - ~~charge~~ me with the expenses incurred in the case, & not publish the "Statement" in the Report or Liberator.

Yours truly

A. A. Phelps.

Boston Monday Morning Apr. 23d. 1838.

I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I am still the same, but I am getting on a little better. I am still thinking of you very much, and I am sure you are thinking of me too. I am still the same, but I am getting on a little better.
